RECIPES WITH PEPTAN® COLLAGEN PEPTIDES

High protein drinks are increasingly popular especially in active nutrition and health applications. Peptan collagen peptides offer a variety of nutritional properties not found in other protein sources due to its unique amino acids composition. Highly soluble, transparent in solution, neutral in taste and odor and heat stable, they are particularly suitable for functional beverages.

Peptan allows for easy formulation and is stable even at high concentrations. Peptan offers the ideal ingredient option for manufacturers aiming to achieve innovative and attractive functional drinks for beauty, sports, weight management or joint and bone health applications.

TROPICAL WATER

with Peptan® B, F or P

A refreshing coconut water with skin beauty benefits.

This refreshing drink can moisturize skin and builds up collagen from the inside for skin beauty. Formulated with 7g Peptan per glass, it is high in protein and a source of vitamin C and fibers. With electrolytes (e.g. potassium), minerals (calcium, magnesium) and vitamins known for their beneficial properties on skin, this is the ultimate healthy beauty drink for skin and body hydration.

BEAUTY

COLLAGEN AND SOY PROTEIN DRINK
