

AARON SMITH

SALES DEVELOPMENT REPRESENTATIVE

Aaron has been with DAR PRO since February of 2019. He is a DFW native, born and raised in Lewisville, Texas! His job duties include both inbound and outbound sales, from reaching out to customers who have sent an inquiry, or helping new customers set up their account. In the words of his team, "Aaron is a multi-team player with his customer relations. He tries to help the customer resolve any issues with one call resolution, whether it is sales or customer service related."

Q: What do you like most about your job?

A: I love what we do as a company! This has been the first time I've really been passionate about the service I am selling, because what we do is good for the environment.

Q: What is your favorite part about working for DAR PRO?

A: I think the best part about working for DAR PRO is the transparency that everyone here has. From top to bottom, there is great communication and people that are always willing to help.

Q: If you had to choose three words to describe yourself, what would those words be?

A: I would say that I am honest, dedicated, and loyal.

Q: How do you impact your customers?

A: I always make sure that I go out of my way to connect with my customers and help them feel comfortable throughout the sales process.

Q: What do you like to do outside of work?

A: I have three kids who are all involved in sports and dance, so that takes up a lot of my time, attending games, practices, and recitals. I am also a fan of any DFW sports team!

Q: What is your favorite food?

A: I would have to go with Mozzarella Sticks from Sonic Drive-In!
