

MICHAEL COSTA

FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

Michael has worked with DAR PRO for over 5 years. His first job was at Taco Bell, where he worked his way up all the way to District Manager, where he watched over the management of 7 restaurants.. A used cooking oil tank located in the back of the restaurant sparked his interest, and the rest is history. He has worked in this industry for 9 years now, and has no signs of stopping anytime soon. His teammates have said that, "Michael is very much a team player as he is always there to help when called upon. His understanding of our customers and their needs makes Michael an invaluable member of the team."

Q: What do you like most about your job?

A: I love to be out in the field and helping our amazing customers. It's very rewarding work.

Q: What is your favorite part about working for DAR PRO?

A: My favorite part is that I believe in the company I work for. We are directly involved with the sustainability effort and it helps to know that you are doing good for the world. Not to mention the company culture, people and relationships I have here.

Q: If you had to choose three words to describe yourself, what would those words be?

A: I would choose loyal, competitive, and team player.

Q: How would you describe your work style?

A: I am the type of person who plans before they start their day. I build what I call a vision board to help me know what the high-priority items on my list are. I am a visual learner, so that really helps me get organized.

Q: How do you impact your customers?

A: Since I worked in the restaurant industry for as long as I did, I do my best to connect with my customers, because I know what they are going through and how I can help them.

Q: What do you like to do outside of work?

A: I spend time with my kids. I have a 5-year-old and a 1.5-year-old, so they keep me busy!

Q: What is your favorite fried food?

A: Easily fried chicken.
