

RICHARD RAMIREZ

FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

Richard works as a Field Representative - and he's been with us for 22 years. Richard is tasked with conducting site surveys at various locations. He says that site surveys can be very technical, and that he learns something new from them every day. Richard is a hard worker who finds passion in his job, as well as his efforts in volunteering for his church.

Learn more about Richard below!

Q: What do you like most about your job?

A: I love the technical aspect of my job. I have done thousands of site surveys and every time it's something different.

Q: What is your favorite part about working for DAR PRO?

A: I like that I get along with everyone I work with!

Q: What kind of impact do you have on your customers?

A: I usually meet with the General Manager and go over every aspect of the installation process, so it's about building trust and keeping things transparent so that they can trust us.

Q: If you had to choose three words to describe yourself, what would those words be?

A: I'm old school, hardworking, and loyal!

Q: Having been here for 22 years, what has your experience been like?

A: I have seen Darling/DAR PRO experience the lowest markets ever seen to date. Getting through those times shows a tribute to the great leadership we have company-wide.

Q: What do you like to do outside of work?

A: I like to volunteer at my church, and I am also the Athletic Director for a middle school in my area.

Q: What is your favorite fried food?

A: I would say it's fried chicken from Chicken Express!
