

TOM GABRIEL

SENIOR ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Before Tom worked with DAR PRO as a Senior Account Executive, he owned multiple restaurants. When he learned about the used cooking oil recycling industry, he sold his restaurants and changed careers. He's been with DAR PRO for 15 years now, and is passionate about what he does. He says that the most successful days start with planning out your day and then executing that plan throughout the day.

Q: What do you like most about your job?

A: I have so much fun at my job. Everyday is different from the last, and I get to work with new people and new concepts. As well as form long term relationships with my customers.

Q: What is your favorite part about working for DAR PRO?

A: DAR PRO has been great to me, and I love the positive environment, the transparency, diversity, and that success is always recognized.

Q: If you had to choose three words to describe yourself, what would those words be?

A: Sincere, Competitive, and results-driven.

Q: What kind of worker are you?

A: My most successful days start with planning. I'm very organized and constantly trying to keep up to date on the changing trends and environment in my market. I go out of my way to make sure that I know when new restaurants are going in, so I can get my shot at getting their business!

Q: What do you like to do outside of work?

A: I like to play tennis with my girlfriend, as well as be with family, going off-shore fishing, and doing volunteer work through my church.

Q: What is your favorite fried food?

A: I would have to say that it's calamari!
