

TARAH HOLMBERG

CUSTOMER SERVICE SPECIALIST

Meet Tarah! She has been at DAR PRO since September of this year. Tarah is a hard worker who genuinely cares about the people around her. She is from Moab, Utah but has since moved to the Dallas area. She has experience working in different restaurants and does an amazing job of connecting with her customers because of this. She is also very grateful for the opportunity she has to work here and what it's done for her life. Of Tarah, people around her have said that "Tarah is an upbeat team member with a level of compassion that is appreciated by our customers."

Learn more about Tarah below!

Q: What do you like most about working for DAR PRO?

A: I find it really satisfying to talk to people and help solve their problems. It also feels really great to know that you are going above and beyond for a customer.

Q: How do you impact the customer?

A: Since I have worked in a few different restaurants, I can relate to the people who call in because I have been in the same situations they have.

Q: If you had to choose three words to describe yourself, what would those words be?

A: I think I would choose passionate, patient, and kind.

Q: What is one piece of advice you wish you could give to everyone?

A: I love the saying "You can't live a sweet life if you choose to be bitter."

Q: What do you like to do outside of work?

A: I am kind of a homebody. I enjoy the company of those close to me, and like to watch documentaries or UFC

Q: What is your favorite fried food?

A: I'm gonna have to choose french fries!